

defined in this Order shall have the same meaning as ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement.

Having considered Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (ECF No. 79) and the Settlement Agreement attached thereto in order to determine, among other things, whether the Settlement is sufficient to warrant the issuance of notice to members of the proposed Settlement Class, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

Jurisdiction. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Action and over all Parties to this Action, including all Members of the Settlement Class.

Class Findings. The Court preliminarily finds, for purposes of the Settlement, that the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, the Local Rules of Civil Procedure for the Southern District of Texas, and any other applicable law have been met as to the Settlement Class, in that:

- (a) The Settlement Class is ascertainable and the Members of the Settlement Class are so numerous that their joinder before the Court would be impracticable.
- (b) The Court preliminarily finds that there are one or more questions of fact and/or law common to the Settlement Class.
- (c) The Court preliminarily finds that the claims of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class.
- (d) Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class in that: (i) the interests of Plaintiffs and the nature of their alleged claims are consistent with those of the Members of the Settlement Class; (ii) there are no known conflicts between or among Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class; and (iii) Plaintiffs are represented by qualified, reputable counsel who are experienced in preparing and prosecuting ERISA class actions of this type.
- (e) The prosecution of separate actions by individual Members of the Settlement Class would create a risk of: (i) inconsistent or varying adjudications as to individual class members, that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing the claims asserted in the Action; or (ii) adjudications as to individual

Class Members that would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications, or substantially impair or impede those persons' ability to protect their interests.

Preliminary Approval of Settlement. The Settlement documented in the Settlement Agreement is PRELIMINARILY APPROVED, as the Court preliminarily finds that: (a) the proposed Settlement resulted from arm's-length negotiations; (b) the Settlement Agreement was executed only after Class Counsel had researched and investigated multiple legal and factual issues pertaining to Plaintiffs' claims, the action was certified under Rule 23(b)(1) as a class action, discovery was complete, expert witness reports were exchanged, the parties' participated in a full day mediation, and summary judgment was fully briefed; (c) there is a genuine controversy between the Parties involving Defendants' compliance with the fiduciary requirements of ERISA; (d) the Settlement appears on its face to be fair, reasonable, and adequate; and (e) the Settlement evidenced by the Settlement Agreement is sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate to warrant sending notice of the Action and the Settlement to the Settlement Class.

Final Fairness Hearing. A hearing (the "Final Fairness Hearing") pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) is hereby SCHEDULED to be held before the Court on September 8, 2026, at 2:30 p.m. at the Bob Casey United States Courthouse, 515 Rusk Street, Houston, Texas 77002, to determine finally, among other things:

- (a) Whether the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- (b) Whether the litigation should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- (c) Whether the Final Approval Order attached to the Settlement should be entered and whether the Releasees should be released of and from the Released Claims, as provided in the Settlement Agreement;

- (d) Whether the notice and notice methodology implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement (i) were reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the litigation, their right to object to the Settlement, and their right to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; (ii) were reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice; and (iii) met all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and any other applicable law;
- (e) Whether Class Counsel adequately represents the Settlement Class for purposes of entering into and implementing the Settlement Agreement as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g) and as preliminarily found by the Court;
- (f) Whether the proposed Plan of Allocation of the Net Settlement Amount is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved by the Court;
- (g) Whether the Settlement has been negotiated at arm's length by Class Counsel on behalf of the Plan and the Settlement Class, whether Plaintiffs have acted independently, whether Plaintiff's interests are identical to the interests of the Plan and the Settlement Class, and whether the negotiations and consummation of the Settlement by Plaintiffs on behalf of the Plan and the Settlement Class does not constitute "prohibited transactions" as defined by ERISA §§ 406(a) or (b) and/or qualify for a class exemption from the prohibited transaction rules, including Prohibited Transaction Exemption 2003-39;
- (h) Whether the application for attorneys' fees and expenses to be filed by Class Counsel should be approved; and
- (i) Any other issues necessary for approval of the Settlement.

The Final Fairness Hearing may be held in person, by telephone, or via videoconference, without further direct notice to the Class Members, other than by notice to Class Counsel, and/or be adjourned or continued by order of the Court.

Class Notice. The Parties have presented to the Court a proposed Settlement Notice which is appended to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A. The Court APPROVES the form and content of the Class Notice finding that it fairly and adequately: (1) describes the terms and effect of the Settlement Agreement and of the Settlement; (2) gives notice to the Settlement Class of the time and place of the Final Fairness Hearing; and (3) describes how the recipients of the Class Notice may object to approval of the Settlement. Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2), the proposed Settlement Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, provides due and sufficient notice of the Final Fairness Hearing and of the rights of all Class Members, and complies fully with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the Constitution of the United States, and any other applicable law. The Parties have proposed the following manner of communicating the notice to Members of the Settlement Class, and the Court finds that such proposed manner is adequate, and directs that Plaintiffs shall:

- (a) By no later than 90 days before the Final Fairness Hearing, cause the Settlement Notice, with such non-substantive modifications thereto as may be agreed upon by the Parties, to be disseminated to the last known address of each Member of the Settlement Class who can be identified by reasonable effort.
- (b) By no later than 90 days before the Final Fairness Hearing, cause the Settlement Notice, with such non-substantive modifications thereto as may be agreed upon by the Parties, to be disseminated to the last known e-mail address of each Member of the Settlement Class who can be identified by reasonable effort.
- (c) By no later than 90 days before the Final Fairness Hearing, cause the Settlement Notice, with such non-substantive modifications thereto as may be agreed upon by the Parties, to be electronically published on a website maintained by the Settlement Administrator. At or before the Final Fairness Hearing, Class Counsel shall notify the Court of timely compliance with the foregoing mailing and publication requirements.
- (e) Cause the Settlement Administrator to establish a Settlement Website on which the Settlement Notice shall be posted, among other documents.

If the Settlement is terminated in accordance with the Settlement Agreement or does not become Final under the terms of the Settlement Agreement for any other reason, this Order shall become null and void and shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions existing immediately before this Court entered this Order.

Use of Order. In the event this Order becomes of no force or effect, no part of it shall be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against Defendants of any fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability, nor shall the Order be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against Plaintiffs or the Settlement Class that their claims lack merit or that the relief requested in the Action is inappropriate, improper, or unavailable, or as a waiver by any party of any defenses or claims he, she, or it may have.
